

NEWSLETTER

OCTOBER 2023

The art class has been studying color theory and painting a greyscale exercise.

The government class celebrates a job well done by cooking breakfast.

Members of the senior class present their Bill of Rights project in government 10/9

PINK OUT

The sports teams recently participated in Breast Cancer Awareness month by wearing pink on their Senior Night.

Mini cheer performs their routine.

STAND4KIND ASSEMBLY

Maggon Osmond organized an assembly to promote kindness in our schools and shift the culture toward kindness.

Lance Allred, a motivational speaker and the first legally deaf player in the NBA, spoke to the students about grit in his presentation “Lions and Leaders: The Principles of Perseverance.” He used sports analogies and experiences that related to all the students, athletes or not.

Poolhouse, an energetic indie rock/pop band, played vibrant music for the students. Band members also shared how kindness impacted their teen years.

Lance introduces Poolhouse 10/22

The volleyball team beat Little Snake River and took home the regional championship title.

The football team took on Torrington in the playoffs and ended their season with an exciting 14–21 game.

