

CHS NEWSLETTER

MARCH '24

Seven Brides for Seven Brothers

This year's musical, besides being a true delight, was extra special because it marked the final production directed by Andra Petersen, Nanette Cook, and Marti Warner. We're so grateful for the 23 years of dedication and love that they've poured into these productions!

Newsletter created by the CHS journalism class

Qualifying for Nationals

In March, senior Evan Dietz competed in the Wind River Speech & Debate District Tournament and qualified for nationals! Evan heads to Iowa in June for the 2024 National Speech & Debate Tournament, where he'll compete in the House of Representatives debate. We're so proud of him for this accomplishment. Congratulations, Evan!

Our JH Intermediate Honor Band/Choir attendees: Jacob, Emmitt, Semisi, Sagen, Ella, and Briquelle.

Prom

To fund their DC trips, the junior class hosted prom (featuring the junior promenade), and the freshmen hosted the yearly Freshman Dinner.