

CLASS ACTIVITIES

Parodies

The Senior English class has been learning about satire in literature and making spoofy short films.

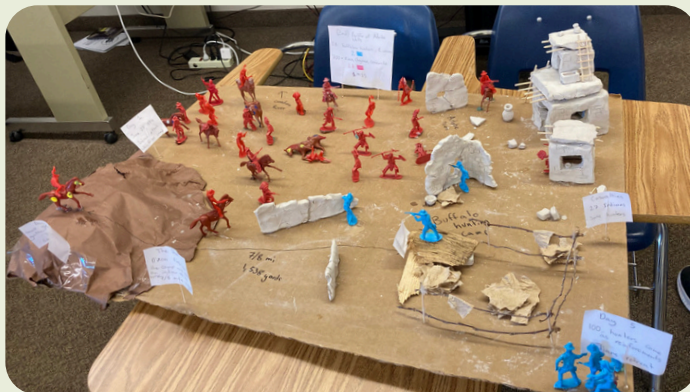

Left: The seniors watch each other's films.

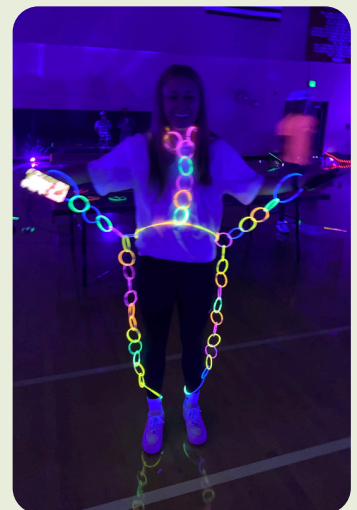

The CHS Music Department recently participated in Festival, and all three groups earned Superior awards for the first time in 15 years. Congratulations!

In American West History, students created battle replicas depicting the Indian wars.

The library put on a glow party as a reward for students reading a certain number of hours at home.

STATE ART

The Cokeville team took third in the newspaper fashion show with their plague doctor outfit.

Cokeville submitted 78 pieces, and 19 students attended.

Art students traveled to Casper for the Wyoming High School Art Symposium, where they submitted artwork for awards and picked up techniques from other students and their art.

Left: Senior Amelia Richardson poses with her artwork.